SYMPOSIUM 2007

The Student Council Symposium is a forum for students and young researchers in the field of computational biology. Participants will have the opportunity to present their work to an international audience, build a network within the computational biology community and develop important soft skills in an environment that fosters exchange of ideas and knowledge.

Submit until June 8th!

We are looking forward to reviewing your abstracts from any area of computational biology. All accepted abstracts will be presented as posters. Outstanding abstracts will be presented orally.
